Would your child prefer a Soccer Buddy who is a
High School Boy _____ High School Girl _____

Would you be willing to help us make this a positive experience by:

1. Meeting with the Director of the Soccer Buddy program and the Soccer Buddy assigned to your child before the season begins in your home with your child.
2. Helping the Soccer Buddy understand your child's special needs and how they can enhance your child's soccer experience.
3. Helping AYSO Region 425 and the Soccer Buddy set realistic goals for your child for the soccer season.
4. Meeting with AYSO Soccer Buddy Director and your child's Soccer Buddy 4 weeks into the season and at the end of the Soccer Season to evaluate your child's progress. Your child's coach may also be part of these discussions.
5. Read and evaluate the journal that your child's Soccer Buddy is required to keep each week to document progress and ideas. This manual will be returned to you to the end of each season for your child's personal records.
